September 2017 onward

- Publication of EASAC Homeopathy report & press release
- Dutch translation on KNAW site
- Immediate media hype (radio, television, newspapers, journals)
- Society for Integral Medicine (AVIG) requests that KNAW dissociates from the report (KNAW refuses)
- Three KNAW members met with a delegation of AVIG...
- Many requests from pupils and students for interviews

The logo for ESOF 2018 Toulouse is a large red hexagon with a white border. Inside, the text 'ESOF' is in white, '2018' is in grey, and 'TOULOUSE' is in white. Surrounding this central hexagon are several smaller hexagons of various colors (blue, yellow, purple, pink, green) containing white icons representing different scientific fields: a network of nodes, a molecular structure, an atom, a rocket, and a chemical structure. A red molecular structure icon is also positioned to the right of the central hexagon.
